- 2.2 Client Information. Client will provide Trustwave with the information described in a SOW and as Trustwave may otherwise reasonably request. Client acknowledges that Trustwave will rely upon the accuracy and completeness of information provided by Client and that Trustwave’s performance is dependent on (i) Client’s timely and effective satisfaction of its responsibilities under this Agreement and (ii) Client’s timely decisions and approvals.
- 2.3 Annualized Services. Client must use any annualized Services within each year of the term of the applicable SOW. Client cannot credit or use unused annualized Services in subsequent years. Client forfeits any annualized Services not used within such timeframes.

Risk of loss to any Equipment will pass to Client upon shipment; title to Equipment will remain with Trustwave. Title and risk of loss of TPP is governed by the TPP Agreements.

4 PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

- 4.1 Trustwave Background IP. All intellectual property rights in any materials, technology, or documentation (including, but not limited to, software, portals or report templates) and any associated intellectual property, any derivative works or modifications developed independently of or prior to, the provision of Services and any deliverables provided under a SOW ("Trustwave Background IP"), is the sole and exclusive property of, and is valuable, confidential and proprietary to, Trustwave. Trustwave grants to Client a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, royalty-free license to access and use Trustwave Background IP to the extent provided to it by Trustwave under this Agreement, for the sole and limited purpose of using the deliverables created under a SOW or enjoying the benefit of the Services. Client will not acquire any rights in any Trustwave Background IP by receiving the Services. This Agreement conveys no right or license to manufacture, duplicate or otherwise copy or reproduce any of the Equipment. Client will not remove any proprietary notices on Equipment delivered and may not co-brand or otherwise add any branding or marking to such Equipment or its packaging. Client agrees that any feedback, including suggestions for improvements or ideas, is Trustwave's sole and exclusive property.

- 4.2 Intellectual Property – Option 1 (Trustwave can commercialize non-sensitive material via its portal)

This Section 4.2 applies to the extent the parties agree Trustwave can commercialize non-sensitive material via its portal, as set out in the SOW as "Option 1" in the intellectual property section of the SOW. Copyright and all other intellectual property rights in the deliverables and any materials used in the performance of the Services remain vested in Trustwave. Trustwave retains all rights to commercialize and release any material created through the provision of the Services, provided that: Trustwave does not identify the Client in its use and release of the materials; and Trustwave does not release details of any vulnerabilities unique to the Client's environment or systems in its use and release of the materials. Subject to Section 9, upon payment in full of the Fees, the Client is granted an exclusive, non-transferable, perpetual, royalty free license to use, copy, modify and distribute the deliverables provided under the SOW as it sees fit (provided that the Client must not do anything that may impact adversely on Trustwave's brand or reputation or the integrity of the deliverables' content), to the extent Trustwave is able to grant such rights.

- 4.3 Intellectual Property – Option 2 ('Traditional Consulting' model)

This Section 4.3 applies to the extent the parties agree Trustwave will provide traditional consulting Services, as set out in the SOW as "Option 2" in the intellectual property section. Other than all of Trustwave's Background IP which remains the absolute property of Trustwave and subject to Section 9, copyright and all other intellectual property rights in the deliverables provided under the SOW and any other material created by Trustwave in delivering the Services vests in the Client upon payment in full of the Fees. The Client grants Trustwave a non-exclusive, sub-licensable, royalty free license to use the copyright and all other intellectual property rights in the deliverables as necessary in the performance of the Services.

Without prior written approval signed by an authorized representative of Trustwave, Client will not, directly or indirectly, (i) use Trustwave's name or any of Trustwave's trademarks, service marks or logos, (ii) make any public announcement related to this Agreement or the Services or (iii) disclose to any third party the fact that Trustwave is Client's service provider.

5 CONFIDENTIALITY

- 5.1 Definitions. "Confidential Information" means any information or documentation disclosed by either Party (the "Discloser") to the other Party (the "Recipient") (including without limitation, documents, data centers, prototypes, samples, Equipment, all software, benchmark tests, specifications, trade secrets, object code and machine-readable copies), including all copies and derivatives thereof, regardless of format. Confidential Information will not, however, include any information which (i) was in the public domain when disclosed; (ii) becomes publicly known after disclosure through no action or inaction of the Recipient; (iii) is already in the possession of the Recipient at the time of disclosure, as the Recipient can demonstrate through objective time-stamped evidence; (iv) is obtained by the Recipient from a third party without a breach of such third party's obligations of confidentiality; (v) is independently developed by the Recipient without use of or reference to the Discloser's Confidential Information; or (vi) is required by law to be disclosed by the Recipient, provided that the Recipient gives the Discloser prompt written notice of such requirement prior to disclosure to the extent permitted by applicable law, and assistance in obtaining a protective order. Recipient will limit any such required disclosure to the information explicitly requested.

- 5.2 Confidential Treatment. Recipient will not use any Confidential Information of the Discloser for any purpose other than as contemplated by this Agreement or any SOW. Recipient will not disclose any Confidential Information of the Discloser to third parties or to any employees, except to those employees who are required to have the information to evaluate or engage in discussions concerning the Services, or the terms of this Agreement or any applicable SOW. Neither Party will reverse engineer, disassemble or decompile any prototypes, software or other tangible objects which embody the other Party's Confidential Information, and which are provided to the Party. Recipient will take commercially reasonable measures to protect the secrecy of and avoid disclosure and unauthorized use of the Discloser's Confidential Information.
- 5.3 Injunctive Relief. Party's breach of its obligations of confidentiality may cause the other Party irreparable injury for which it would not have an adequate remedy at law. In the event of a breach, the non-breaching Party will be entitled to seek injunctive relief in addition to any other remedies it may have at law or in equity.
- 5.4 Third Party Sponsor. If the Services are sponsored by a third party, such as an acquiring bank, legal counsel, management company, or franchisor, Client will provide Trustwave with written notice of such sponsorship and will authorize Trustwave to disclose information related to the Services and resulting reports to such third-party sponsor.
- 5.5 No Representations. Trustwave's obligations under Section 5 do not create any additional implied or express representations or warranties regarding the Services. Trustwave will not be liable for any breach of this Agreement resulting from a hack or intrusion by a third party into Client's network, environment, software, hardware, operational technology or information technology systems unless the hack or intrusion was through endpoints or devices monitored by Trustwave pursuant to a SOW and was caused directly by Trustwave's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

- 6.4 Equipment Return. Upon the earlier of the termination or expiration of the Agreement or the applicable SOW, Client will return all Equipment to Trustwave. If the Equipment is not timely returned or is not in the same condition as received by Client (except for normal wear and tear), Client will be responsible for the then-current replacement costs of such Equipment.
- 6.5 End of Life. If, during the term of the applicable SOW, Trustwave discontinues any Service, then Trustwave will provide Client with written notice of such discontinuation as soon as reasonably practicable but no less than ninety (90) days prior to such discontinuation and may, in its sole discretion, either (i) substitute the discontinued Service with a service of comparable quality and effectiveness; or (ii) terminate the discontinued Services.

- 6.6 Effect of Termination. If Client terminates this Agreement or a Service, Client agrees to pay Trustwave within thirty (30) days for all Services performed by Trustwave up to the date of cancellation that have not previously been paid.
